

I selected UK newspaper to analysis(<http://www.thebigproject.co.uk/news/#.W-loNJMzblU>)

1- Usable:

- a- The system in which the product or service is simple and easy to use
- b- System designed in a way that is familiar and easy to understand

2- Useful:

the product is useful and fill a need. If the product or service is not useful or fulfilling user's wants or needs then there is no real purpose for the product itself.

3- Desirable:

The visual aesthetics of the system is attractive and easy to translate. Design Is minimal and to the point.

4- Findable:

Information are findable and easy to navigate. If the user has a problem they should be able to quickly find a solution. The navigational structure is also it is set up in a way that makes sense.

5- Accessible:

The product designed so that even users with a disabilities can have the same user experience as others.

6- Credible:

The company and its products is trustworthy.
it is based on many sources that are trustworthy such as:

BBC

CNN

Financial Times

Guardian

NPR

Voice of America

